JUDGE ROY MOORE: LEADERSHIP YOU CAN TRUST!

JUDGE ROY MOORE, FORMER ALABAMA SUPREME COURT CHIEF JUSTICE, PRESIDENT OF FOUNDATION FOR MORAL LAW: Resides in Gallant, Alabama, with his wife Kayla and their children. Judge Moore graduated from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point in 1969 and completed his Juris Doctor degree from the University of Alabama School of Law in 1977. Captain Moore served in the U.S. Army as a company commander with the Military Police Corp in Vietnam.

He became the first full-time Deputy District Attorney in Etowah County and served in this position from 1977 until 1982. In 1984, Chief Justice Moore undertook private practice of law in Gadsden. He became a judge of the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit of Alabama in 1992, and served until his election as Chief Justice of the Alabama Supreme Court in 2000. In 2003, Chief Justice Moore was removed from his position for standing up for the inalienable right to acknowledge God. The former Chief Justice lectures throughout the United States, teaching about America's history and our right to acknowledge God. He authors a bi-weekly column, Our Moral Foundation, at www.WorldNetDaily.com. Judge Moore has authored a book, So Help Me God (2005), as well as numerous publications, including "Religion in the Public Square," Cumberland Law Review, Cumberland School of Law, Volume 29, No. 2, 1998-1999; "Putting God Back in the Public Square," Imprimis, Hillsdale College, Vol. 28, No. 8, August, 1999; "Courts Out of Control: Understanding the Rule of Law in America," Liberty Forum, Institute on the Constitution, Vol. 2, Issue 2, Spring 2006; Our Legal Heritage, Foundation for Moral Law; and a chapter in Judicial Tyranny: The New Kings of America (Mark Sutherland ed., The National Policy Center 2005).
